

city of greenville

News Release

GREENLINK TO OFFER “FAMILY FREE SATURDAY” AND “RIDE & PLAY” THIS WEEKEND

(GREENVILLE SC) Greenlink will offer its annual Family Free Saturday on October 19 as a way to promote public transportation, thank its current customers and introduce new riders to Greenlink’s newly-renovated transit center, new buses and award-winning service. On Saturday, all routes will be free during Greenlink’s normal hours of service.

Greenlink and The Children’s Museum of the Upstate will also offer their Ride & Play promotion on Saturday and Clifford the Big Red Dog will make an appearance at the Greenlink transfer center on Saturday from 12:00 – 12:30 p.m.

Ride & Play is designed to make it easy and affordable for families to visit and enjoy The Children’s Museum of the Upstate by riding Greenlink, which has a stop conveniently located near the Heritage Green campus at the intersection of Buncombe Street and Rutherford Street. As part of the promotion, buy one, get one free vouchers for the museum will be available on all Greenlink buses on Saturday. The vouchers will be valid on October 19 and 20; however, riders who are unable to visit the museum during those two days can use their vouchers to receive $2 off the museum admission price October 21 - 31.

For more information about Greenlink, visit www.ridegreenlink.com. For more information about The Children’s Museum of the Upstate, visit <http://www.tcmupstate.org/>.

#

Contacts: Gregory Baney
Manager of Administration
Greenlink
(864) 467-2700

Lisa Libertore
Marketing Director
The Children’s Museum of the Upstate
(864) 553-7924